

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 8:4-9
RESPONSE: O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
what is man that you should keep him in mind,
mortal man that you care for him? Response.

Yet you have made him little less than a god;
with glory and honour you crowned him,
gave him power over the works of your hand,
put all things under his feet. Response.

All of them, sheep and cattle,
yes, even the savage beasts,
birds of the air, and fish that make their way through the waters. Response.

SECOND READING: Romans 5:1-5
A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans
To God through Christ in the love which is poured out through the Spirit.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: cf Revelation 1:8
Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: John 16:12-15
A reading from the holy Gospel according to John Whatever the Father has is mine. The Spirit will receive what I give and tell you about it.

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.
But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself
but will say only what he has learnt;
and he will tell you of the things to come.
He will glorify me
since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine.
Everything the Father has is mine;
that is why I said:
All he tells you
will be taken from what is mine.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:
Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

FIRST READING: Proverbs 8:22-31

A reading from the book of Proverbs Wisdom was born before the earth was made.

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works.
From everlasting I was firmly set,
from the beginning, before earth came into being.
The deep was not, when I was born,
there were no springs to gush with water.
Before the mountains were settled,
before the hills, I came to birth;
before he made the earth, the countryside,
or the first grains of the world's dust.
When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there,
when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep,
when he thickened the clouds above,
when he fixed fast the springs of the deep,
when he assigned the sea its boundaries
- and the waters will not invade the shore - when he laid down the foundations of the earth,
I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PARISH NEWS & NOTICES:Request for Mass and Prayers.

We pray for those who have recently died. Also pray for those who celebrate anniversaries.

World Meeting of Families from Friday the 24th to the 26th June.

With the encouragement of Archbishop Anthony Fisher OP, the World Meeting of Families will be celebrated within the Archdiocese of Sydney.

In preparation for your family's participation we suggest that during this week ahead your family will discuss, plan and prepare for the special three days of prayer and family spirituality, working out the prayers you will use on certain days and to plan the route of your Saturday pilgrimage. Check out the resources from the website to help you with this <https://www.sydneycatholic.org/world-meeting-of-families/> or ask Fr Roberto for an information booklet and passport for your children.

Beginning on Friday the 24th June the first celebration begins with Mass at Church and / or prayers in your home. Families are encouraged to enthrone the Sacred Heart of Jesus in their home using the prayers from the website noted above. Copies will also be available from our front foyer.

For those participating families we will sell (for $10) some framed pictures of the Sacred Heart of Jesus next weekend, just in case you do not already have one in your home.

Saturday the 25th June families pilgrim together to 2 or more of the 8 parishes that have prepared for a pilgrimage. The parishes to visit are noted on the noticeboard, in the passport children are encouraged to use, on the website from above and in this bulletin. At each parish visited, children will be given a sticker for their passport.

St Therese will be one of the parishes for families to pilgrimage to, as we will have the relics of St Therese and her parents here. There will also be a catechesis here at 11am and veneration of the relics will begin at 12 midday till 6pm.

Sunday the 26th June will be centred on the Eucharist and begin with 10.30am Mass celebrated by Archbishop Fisher at St Mary's Cathedral, after which families participate in the 'Festival of Families' beside the cathedral with food, coffee, music, stalls and activities for children. This celebration will conclude the three day Meeting of Families. Hope many families can participate.

Solar Panels and Battery Grant Application.

During the week we submitted our application to receive a grant for solar panels and battery for the presbytery. This would significantly reduce our energy bills and be a huge bill burden relief. Lets hope we are successful. We will know sometime in December if we have been successful.

Baptism this weekend.

This Sunday we will welcome into our faith community Stella Elias. We also congratulate her parents Phillip and Amy and their families.

First Holy Communion at St Therese.

Rehearsal for First Holy Communion will be held in the Church at 4pm on Saturday the 18th June for candidates & their parent.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION will be on Sunday the 19th June at 11.30am

Volunteers for ONE hour needed for Meeting of Families.

We need volunteers to be with the relics from 12 midday to 6pm. The volunteers will keep a watchful eye on the relics and also handout the stickers to the children for their pilgrimage passport. Our volunteer sheet is in the front foyer. Thanks you!

Denistone is a destination site for the Meeting of Families pilgrimage.

As our parish has been chosen to be a place to pilgrimage to NEXT weekend.

All destination pilgrimage sites are:

St Therese Denistone – relics of St Therese of Lisieux and her parents St Louis and St Zèlie Martin

St Joachim's, Lidcombe – relic of Pope St John Paul II

St Dominic's, Homebush West – relic of Blessed Gabrielle Allegra

St Peter Chanel and St Joseph, Berala – relics of St Peter Chanel and St Dominic

Our Lady of Lourdes Grotto, Earlwood – relic of St Mary of the Cross

Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Waterloo - childhood parish of Eileen O'Connor (in process of beautification)

The Shrine of St Anne, Bondi – relic of St Anne St Mary's Cathedral, Sydney – relic of St Francis Xavier and the new painting of St Joseph

On the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

The mystery of the Holy Trinity is the most fundamental of our faith. And the Church faithfully continues to protect this revealed truth that God is One in nature and Three in Persons.

All of us were baptized 'in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,' our faith truly rests on the Trinity. The Trinity is a mystery of faith which can never be fully known unless it is revealed by God. As early as the 4th century, St Gregory of Nazianus entrusted the summary of the Trinitarian faith to the catechumens of Constantinople:

"Above all, he said, guard for me this great deposit of faith for which I live and fight,...and which makes me bear all evils and despise all pleasures: I mean the profession of faith in the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. I entrust it to you today. By it I am soon going to plunge you into water and raise you up from it. I give it to you as the companion and patron of your whole life."

The Fourth Lateran council also reaffirmed the faith of the church declaring:

"We firmly believe and profess without qualification that there is only one true God, eternal, immense, unchangeable, incomprehensible, omnipotent, and indescribable, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; three persons but one essence and a substance or nature that is wholly simple."

The Father is from no one; the Son is from the Father only; and the Holy Spirit is from both the Father and the Son equally. God has no beginning;

He always is, and always will be. The Father is the progenitor, the Son is the begotten, the Holy Spirit is proceeding. They are all one substance, equally great, equally all-powerful, equally eternal. They are the one and only principle of all things – Creator of all things visible and invisible, spiritual and corporeal, who, by His almighty power, from the very beginning of time has created both orders of creatures in the same way out of nothing, the spiritual or angelic worlds and the corporeal or visible universe."
